

Bob Renaud's Facebook Comments

October 22, 2013

Your sins will find you out so it's best to follow Lanny's advice: "Tell it early. Tell it all. Tell it yourself."

November 29, 2013 (reply to Peter Bradrick)

This is why we did what we did brother. We were not going to sit by and allow the weak to be victimized. I still believe in this doctrine even if my mentor and friend rejected it.

January 2, 2014

Did you see the pathetic statement by the BCA elders?

<http://www.boernechristianassembly.org/.../statement-by....> This is terrible. I personally told Bob Sarratt he was negligent for not dealing with this issue for eight months and keeping it quiet. He never informed the VFM board of the infidelity. This is terrible that just now they are issuing a statement and trying to claim they did their biblical duty. It wasn't until we exposed what was going on that they got serious. The statement is full of Bill Clinton like language. Just like Doug's statement. It's sad that these men are not heeding the counsel of wiser and more mature men that have been trying to come along side them. God have mercy.